Dream Killer

By ECS Headmaster Ted Trainor

My teenaged daughter arose from her seat, a little indignant, a little sad. She composed herself to exit the conversation. Then she uttered these parting words, "Why do you have to be such a dream killer?" Visibly upset, but not so upset that she dared to throw eye darts my direction or raise her voice, she retired to her room. She remained composed enough not to slam her door. Rincon Lions Christmas Parade

Thank you to Mrs. Robyn Arnold for an amazing design! Another hearty thank you goes out to all participants: Michele Clayton for driving your truck, Randa Flowers for the use of their trailer as always, Miles, Delk, Moran, Stewart, Trainor families for representing ECS and the ECS upper school students for aid in executing Mrs. Arnold's design! Stay tuned for the next parade in the Spring.

Windstream Connects Update

Thank you to everyone who voted!
We did not win; however, the experience was amazing and a great exercise in building community here at ECS.

Yearbook Pictures

Please email all pictures to: yearbookadvisor@effinghamchristian.org or bring them to the front office on CD. Please label them by activity.

Art Teacher News:

Miss Toni-Lyn Keller will be moving to North Georgia this December - following God's call to a new ministry. We are excited for God's leading this sincere, gifted woman of God. Pray for a smooth transition for her. Also, pray for ECS to find a qualified Art teacher for the remainder of the school year. If you have ideas or contacts that may assist with this need, please email or call Mr. Trainor.
